To the Graduates

Since the members of the class of 1957 have chosen sportsmanship as the theme of this edition of THE SPINDLE, it is clear that they plan to model their lives on those principles which have always resulted in the highest type of success. We hope that the members of the class possess the high quality of an intrepid heart, and have learned here that each player who gamely participates in living must study the rules of life, must apply them fearlessly, and must accept the results gallantly. Into the weaving of your careers may you take from our school the skill, courage and firmness to create admirable records.

The Lowell High School Band has completed another colorful and exciting season. It has continued, as in the past, to provide excellent music for all occasions, whether it be a football game, assembly, parade, or a concert. The fine reputation of our "Red and Gray Musicians" has grown until now the band is known all over the state as well as here in Lowell.

Under the direction of Mr. William J. Notini, the most popular leader, its members have worked all year rehearsing for the many dates on their busy schedule.

Congratulations to Mr. Notini and his aggregation of musicians for a job well done.

Book Room

Front: Mr. Francis D. Reardon, Angela C. Gallagher, Brenda Joy. Second row: Daniel Hyde, Jeanne Deslisle. Rear: Pauline Gekas, Donna Foley.

The book room is organized and directed by Mr. Francis Reardon, who appoints pupils from his homeroom to help in the control and distribution of books used throughout the school in various English classes.

These seniors spend their spare hours in the book room helping Mr. Reardon keep inventory of all books in his department.

Telephone Operators

The switchboard operators are a group of alert girls chosen to help with duties in the main office. This year the group consists of thirteen Senior girls who spend their spare hours keeping a record of outgoing calls and checking dismissal slips, as well as receiving all calls.

The operators are chosen at the end of their Junior year by Miss Bertha Desmarais and Miss Mary Lyons.

Front: Joanne Lambert, Barbara Bowling, Jeannette Langlois, Barbara McLaughlin, Gail Foster, Maureen Regan, Christine Hansen, Middle: Eleanor Desilets, Ann McMahon, Rita St. Cyr, Ann Braczyk, Constance Williams. Rear: Virginia Berys, Janice Duffy.

This year's Lowell High Basketball squad, headed by Captain Charlie Pelley, had one of its best seasons. Lowell's leading scorer this year, Bill Vrettas, will be back along with a lot of good material, so next year just might be the year. Lowell had one very bright spot in '57, the two whitewash victories over Keith. The boys met with some tough breaks, but being true sportsmen, stuck it out to the end, even pulling games out of the fire when they seemed completely lost. On the squad were Charlie Pelley, Billy Vrettas, John Caron, Gerald Flynn, George Cote, Nicholas Mitides, Thomas Davey, James Garrity, Thomas Sheehan, William McLaughlin, Christopher Papadopoulos, and Michael Netishen.

Track

Front: Robert Devaney, Gerald Peaslee, George O'Meara, Ed Rindler, Thomas Gilbride, James Choate, Royal Coldwell, James McCann, Captain John Maloney, Arthur Andricopolous, Arthur Rourke. Second: Brian Sullivan, John Makiej, Joseph Meehan, Martin O'Connor, Robert Burns, John MacLaughlin, Stuart Cohen, Leo Choquette, Raymond Hodge, Roy Lenardson. Third: Thomas Kane, John Fuller, William Georgeou, David Reilly, James Ahearn, Michael Keohane, Robert Stevenson, George Basbanes, John Hayes. Rear: Joseph Ryan, Joseph Valente, John Slattery, Joseph Primeau, Raymond Sullivan, Frank Janas, Joseph Grygiel, Coach George Haggerty.

John Maloney captained the track team under the experienced coach, George Haggerty, to one of its most successful seasons. The boys lost only once, and that was at Andover. They successfully kept their home win streak alive by beating Needham and Lawrence. John went undefeated in the thirty and forty yard runs. Mike Keohane was the shot put "king" this year, also going undefeated. This year's team contained many seniors, but the outlook for next year is bright.

The Golf Squad

Stadium Figures

Each year the Baton Twirlers, under the direction of Wilfrid T. Boulger, decorate the L.H.S. stadium in their glittering gold and white uniforms. They put on a spectacular display of well-executed drills and precision twirling which always thrills the crowds. Participating in the Field Day exercises is another of their activities, and the annual Memorial Day and Armed Forces Day parades find the girls strutting down the street in fine fashion. They also take part each year in the Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festival.

This group has grown from a membership of twenty-nine, which was the number in the year of its establishment in 1935, to a present membership of eighty. They have proven themselves to be an asset to their community as well as to their school. Not only are they well known in Lowell and surrounding towns, but the more proficient members of the group have merited a name for themselves as ardent competitors and recipients of numerous awards in twirling competitions throughout eastern Massachusetts and Connecticut, and in the National Championship Contest in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Besides these competitions, in which they participate every month, the girls also take part in their own inter-class contests which are held in the Spring. One of the more eagerly awaited days is the day on which the leaders for the following year are chosen.

This is undoubtedly the busiest unit in the school, as twirling is a twelve month activity.

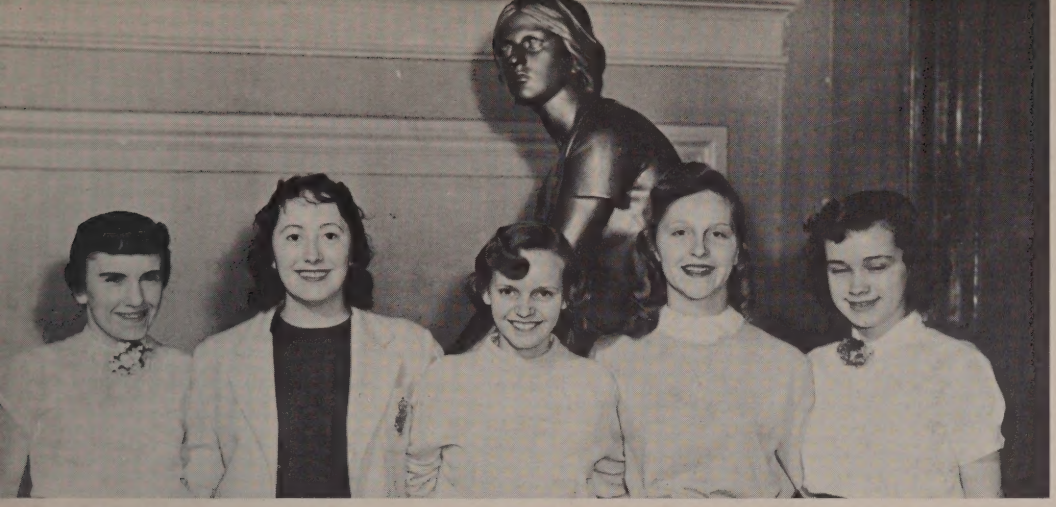
Character, Scholarship, Leadership, Service—the four cardinal principles—and the emblem of the flaming torch—these symbolize the high standards of the National Honor Society.

In order to be a member of this distinguished and select organization, a student at the end of his Junior year must attain a rank of at least 90%, within the top 5% of the class. Pictured above are the students who have achieved this feat and who were initiated at a special ceremonial assembly during the latter part of last year. More students from '57 who will have earned a rank of at least 85%, within the top 15% of the class will be entitled to membership at a later date.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Charles Foley, the National Honor Society of Lowell High School continues to contribute each year many worthy students to this honorable, nationwide organization.



Brenda Hand, Patricia Hackett, Patricia St. John, Mary Primeau and Helen Flood.

Room 100

Mr. Emmett Harris, acting as bursar, supervises the activities of the staff of Room 100. The room is really a bank, a ticket office, a distributor of locker keys, and a lost and found department.

Home Room Representatives

Collecting class dues, selling tickets for the school show and play, and distributing the caps and gowns, keep the home room representatives busy during R-3. They are elected by the home room classes and function throughout the year.

Front: Millicent Maguire, Hilaria Hartley, Ann McMahon, Nancy Flanders, Tanya Annis. Middle: Evelynne Coughlin, Marcia Cryan, Joan Kenyon, Esther Panus, Louise Harzigian. Rear: Brenda Dwyer, Brenda Sheehan, Justine Ohlsen, Lorraine St. Onge, Marianne Morris.

Greenhalge Debating Society

The name of Frederic T. Greenhalge, a Lowell man who was a former governor of Massachusetts, is incorporated into the title of the Debating Society. From the whole club, which recites in a class to Mr. Francis D. Reardon one day each week, the members of a competitive team are chosen to enter debates of the National Forensic League. Elected as officers for this year were Robert Maria, president; Tanya Annis, second vice-president; James O'Leary, first vice-president; Neal Cortell, secretary; and James Swartz, sergeant-at-arms.

Floormasters Secretaries

From the list of applicants of Junior girls Miss Mary V. Lyons and the floormasters select girls to act as secretaries in the various offices throughout the school. Every period in each office there is a girl who performs all the duties which are a part of the function of office secretaries. Nearly all the girls are placed in business offices immediately on graduation.

Speakers Bureau

In the interest of the Lowell Tuberculosis and Health Association, members of the Speakers' Bureau, under the direction of Miss Mary Casey, spoke before several local clubs. The group presented a one-act play "A Very Merry Christmas," over radio station WLLH, and also helped promote the sale of Christmas Seals among the students of Lowell High.

Front: Myrna Herscot, Madeline McLaughlin, Chesley Tellier, Joanne O'Brien. Rear: Charles Mitsakos and George Duggan.

Elevator Operators

Another team that Lowell High is proud of, is its group of elevator operators, who are cadet officers chosen for their courtesy, merit and efficiency by Captain James Murray. The boys sacrifice their spare periods in order to operate the elevator, which is used by the students who are recuperating from sickness, and by teachers.

Co-operative Retailing

On the twelfth grade level, the co-operative retailing course is available to seniors who are physically fit and sixteen years of age or older.

To qualify for the course, such factors as general scholarship, attendance, personality, appearance, conduct and interest are needed.

Two personnel directors from our local stores interview prospective students at the end of their junior year. Their scholastic rating, plus the conditions previously mentioned, decide which students are acceptable to employment.

Thus, only a few are admitted to this course, as each member is obliged to meet the merchant's standards.

European Culture Club

Possessing an outstanding membership record, the European Culture Club has enjoyed a most successful year. The members increase their knowledge of European countries through films and interesting talks given by members of the faculty and friends of the high school who have visited Europe.

Besides meeting on the first Monday of each month, the club enjoys many social activities. Most popular of the social events were the Christmas party and the trip to Boston.

Miss Bertha Desmarais is the faculty advisor. Without her the European Culture Club would not be the fine organization it is.

The Spanish Club

Each year, Miss Mary V. O'Neill, who is the head of the Spanish Department at Lowell High School, conducts the Spanish Club for the benefit of those who have elected Spanish as a subject, and who wish to follow, as a group, the customs of the various Spanish countries.

On the third Thursday of every month, Spanish customs are discussed by various members and faculty advisors of the school. During the Christmas meeting, candy, cake and refreshments are served and gifts are distributed in a fascinating way. A pinata is made and filled with small articles. At the breaking of this colorful object, a mad rush is made to grab a gift.

Each Spanish Club meeting brings us closer to the manners and language of several foreign countries.

A Cappella Choir

On Thursday afternoons, this small group composed of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, meets in the Lowell High School auditorium under the able direction of Miss Gertrude O'Brien. As the name A Cappella infers, the choir performs without accompaniment in order to help develop an ear for music. They present very fine programs at assemblies, and are available for outside presentations.

The Orchestra

The Lowell High School Orchestra is one of the school's most enjoyed activities. Started in 1916 by Mr. Fred O. Blunt, it now has for its director Miss Gertrude A. O'Brien. Miss O'Brien originally assumed her duty in 1930 and was head of this organization until 1953 when, because of illness, she was forced to drop this activity. During the years 1955 and 1956, Mr. Wm. J. Notini, current band director at Lowell High School, took over the direction of the Orchestra. Last year the Orchestra remained inactive, but this year it was once again re-organized under Miss O'Brien's direction. The members of the orchestra are selected from every class in the school. Membership in the Orchestra entitles a player to a one-point credit toward graduation. Rehearsing after school on Fridays, the Orchestra performs at assemblies, plays, and other social functions. Faithful attendance at rehearsals has resulted in the production of a wide repertoire.

Every Wednesday after school, Special Chorus rehearsals are held under the competent direction of Mrs. Fred Drescher. Throughout the school year this harmonious group sings at the Columbus Day, Veteran's Day, Christmas, Easter, and Memorial Day Assemblies as well as at graduation. Outside of school, the chorus entertains the blind, the College Club, and the Golden Age Club.

Each year the entire chorus takes part in the Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festival, which was held this year on May 4 in Concord. The selections chosen for this year were: "Where E'er You Walk," "Lady of Spain," and "Lo, A Voice to Heaven Sounding."

The Special Chorus is made up of 80 voices including 34 sopranos, 23 altos, 12 basses, and 11 tenors. Personality, character, tone quality, and attentiveness in chorus class are taken into consideration when these members are chosen.

JOHN CONNOLLY

The Cadet Officers of the Lowell High School Regiment, originally formed in 1880, are presently under the direction of Captain James F. Murray and Captain John A. Beaulieu. Under the new drill system, officers are chosen according to marks received in drill and also in written examinations. Those candidates who receive the highest ranks become captains. Later on in the school year the colonel, lieutenant-colonels and majors are selected by a competitive drill among the captains. This group is responsible for the conduct of their respective companies in the Annex, on Field Day, and on Memorial Day. Besides marching, these officers preside at civic inaugurals and at various social events through out the year. Under the new system a Cadet Officer's Advisory Board has also been established consisting of members who are elected by the officers themselves. The chief duty of the board is to serve as a council in any special cases which arise. The members of the year's board are: Lieutenants Arthur Whitty, George Duggan and Richard Breton; Captains: Peter Rock, William Heenan and Richard Beauregard, and Major Dennis Moore. Colonel John Connolly will serve as chairman and he will be assisted by Lt. Colonel Arnold Lovering.

Personnel

The Personnel department was established thirty-three years ago in 1924, and since then it has aided in preparing girls for their futures in the business world.

Personnel consists of twenty girls chosen in their Junior year of High School. The girls work hard individually and as a group to produce mimeographed tests, office forms, daily absentee lists, notices, schedules, and typewritten letters.

This department is under the excellent supervision of Miss Mary V. Lyons.

For seventy years there has been a "Review" published in Lowell High School. At first as a small newspaper, then as a magazine, and for the past sixteen years in its present format, the paper has been produced by a carefully selected staff which represents the whole school.

Directed by Miss Anna Ryan, the staff is chosen from a long list of applicants. This year the paper published the first news of the new Student Government Organization and of the new council of the Cadet Officers. Especially active on the staff were the editor-in-chief, Arnold Lovering and the business manager, Charles Mitsakos.

"GIRL OF THE MONTH"

A wise choice for October's "Girl of the Month" is pretty Carol A. McDermott. Carol, who was recently selected Colonel of the Girl Officers Regiment, resides with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. McDermott, at 371 High Street. She is pursuing the College Commercial course and is hoping to enter St. John's Hospital as an x-ray technician. An active member of the high school chorus, the Immaculate Conception C. Y. O. and St. John's Nurses Aid, she manages to find time to skate, dance and even swim. All who know her agree that Carol's sparkling personality and charming smile are an asset to the Senior class. Kenny's will present our Colonel with a lovely orchid.

The Science Club

An important organization in Lowell High School is the Science Club which is directed by Mr. James F. Conway. The members of this club, which was founded for the purpose of stimulating interest in scientific study and research, met every other week during the school year.

Highlighting the activities of this year's club was the Science Fair at which exhibits of various members on some phase of science were judged. Those to receive top honors were: Peter Samson, Neal P. Cortell, Francis P. McGee, and Peter A. Rock.

The club's officers for 1956-1957 were: President, Arthur Whitty; Vice-President, William Heenan; Secretary, Lucy Sherburne; Treasurer, Michael Sokolowski; and Program Chairman, Peter Samson.

Driver Education

Good sportsmanship is certainly reflected in the Driver Education Course here at Lowell High School. A relatively new course, it furnishes 1 credit-point toward graduation. In the classroom, Miss Rose O'Neil teaches the students to develop the right attitudes toward driving which result in a careful, cautious, and courteous driver. The behind-the-wheel training is administered to the pupils by Mr. Thomas Grady and by Mr. Nicholas Apostolakos. The success of Driver Education in the High School points toward a change in teen-age driving habits—toward good sportsmanship.

We Salute You!

Congratulations and the best of luck! We at Loring are proud of the part we have had in helping to make your classbook a permanent reminder of your school years, recording with photographs one of the happiest and most exciting times of your life! We hope that, just as you have chosen us as your class photographer, you will continue to think of Loring Studios when you want photographs to help you remember other momentous days to come! When you choose Loring portraits, you are sure of the finest craftsmanship at the most moderate prices!
